

do not change the do not call list in new jersey....it is the best thing that has ever happened...i can finally sit home at night after a hard days work without be harassed by unwanted, ignorant telemarketers...believe me if there is something i want, i will go buy it, i dont need to be bothered while i am relaxing at home with my family...we all hate telemarketers and we are happy not to be harassed or bothered any more....thank you